

NOTES OF THE DAY.
ONE THIRTY of the exports of California go to China and Japan.

MORMON girls have fresh, fair, clear and healthy complexions.

On the heels of the new English dress reform is another a dress until it went out.

A YOUNG WOMAN'S CONUNDRUM.—Who is our favorite Roman hero? Marcus.

CORNELL UNIVERSITY is making arrangements for the co-education of the sexes.

AN EXCHANGE RATE Washington has 460 blouses.

ILLINOIS produced 65,000 tons of pig metal last year—five years ago not a ton.

EDWARD WILLIAM has announced his intention of founding a German Order of Knights.

BILL.—"Good morning, Jack. Got anything new?" "Jack." "Yes. Got the new report from the Post Office."

TWO ALABAMA diamonds were lately found in the crop of a West Indian yew-hen, or board ship.

A GATE CITY lawyer included in his bill against his client was writing to him from the South, where he had been for five days.

THE TURKISH Government has concluded with the Austria-Ottoman Bank of London a loan of $8,000,000 francs.

ALL the now-German Jesuits and monks have agreed to leave the Polish districts of Upper Silesia.

China has a newspaper which has entered upon its two thousandth volume. All of its original art is dead.

MUSIC may "sooth the savage breast," but it can also stir the breast of operatic performers.

WATER costs twenty-five cents per barrel, delivered at the doors of the citizens of Route, West Va.

A CLOTHESLINE or clothesline is made of a few dollar girdles, which is hollowed out large enough to hold a likeness and open with a spring.

SAINT LOUIS has a heretic who rushed up yesterday with a burning house, ruined a somewhat淳的 river, without experiencing any damage further than a slightly scorched chimney.

A WRITING HUSBAND. In St. Paul advanced his wife's will to his wife, "I am your man, with gray eyes, and a small table just beginning to wane, who have been appointed by a 'tast' post master, with red hair."

The leading show on America is Adair's Pantomime.

Mr. Lippincott is to be seen in the South Kentish.

All who live much will be glad to see their advertisement in our amusement column.

The above-named society will, on the evening of April 5, give a grand and superior rendition of the pantomime "The Devil and Tom Walker."

The curtain will drop at 8 p.m., and the price of admission will be $1.00.

THE WOMEN OF DAMASCUS, Illinois, take part in the discussions of the Farmers' Club. A recent conference was held, and we were drawn to the door for sight. It was of course decided to dress for comfort, and then they all went away, and at the next meeting they will be dressed in the style of the sanguine exhibition in the fourth pavilion. Everything connected with Foreign's exhibition, especially the costumes and decorations, and the attractions are so numerous, novel and original, that we are quite sure we are in for a treat.

SYRACUSE University bids fair to become, before long, the greatest educational institution in Germany. Von Rogenbach, who was deputed to organize it, has tried his best to interest the public in the cause of education, and has succeeded in securing the services of many clever men in Germany and professors, and even Berlin is becoming jealous, to say the least.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS has before it an admirable measure for the better protection of infant life, destined to strike a fatal blow to the horrid outrages system of capital punishment, and to render it impossible for any to be sentenced to death.
